WHERE IS THE SCIENCE OF MEDICINE?—In the last century, in the cities of New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, fifty thousand persons died of consumption. In Great Britain during the same period, the mortality of consumptive persons amounts to sixty thousand. Calomel, of course, killed every one of them.

There is no blessing like that of health, particularly when you're sick.

ARTIFICIAL SOURCES OF BODY VIGOR.—Exercise, temperance in eating, pure air, frequent bathing, abstinence from stimulant luxuries and the abuse of sexual passions, pure and nutritious diet.

Patient medicines will do for rats; but for men, under the Greeks made Socrates swallow hemlock, because in that time there was not poisoned patient medicines.

DAILY MORNING Draughts to be taken early, by every person with pulmonary consumption, or inflammation in the lungs; and take a walk without fatigue.

She uses milk, one pint; Purifying loafs, nine pounds, one dram. Mix and take them all at once.

At noon, Sprit of Mindretoe, one fluid dram; Tincture of Gentian; one dram; Spirit of Castor one scruple; Paragoric; one dram; Spirit of Nitre, half dram; Port wine, half ounce; sugar or Honey, one scruple. Mix for a draught.

At night, going to bed, add to the Iceland moss, Dovet's Powder, ten grains; Gum, quantam, sufficient. Dose, six puffs.

This course will not cure consumption in the last stage, but is the best treatment (by part) for that disease. Woman's breast milk is recommended, and the aid of medicine, and at Mala, and very medicinally.

Physical, for the most part, is nothing else but the subsistence of exercise or temerity. The sick without hope, with old chronic diseases, that other physicians have never been able to cure, who are actually suffering, especially those attacked periodically with Chills and Fever, Rheumatic Complaints, Gout, Habitual running, &c., will please call on us at Mrs. Davis's, opposite Brown's Hotel.
